This Week's Good News

Dear Friends,

Today's readings are about people's bearing heroic witness to Jesus through life and death, and the Source of the inspiration behind such witness-bearing. They urge us to work for greater Christian unity and to consider the power of Christian witness.

The first reading describes the martyrdom of Stephen, showing us how he bore witness to the forgiving love of Jesus by his last prayer. In the second reading, taken from the Book of Revelation, Jesus, the Alpha, and the Omega is pictured as having all the forces of Heaven and earth at his disposal, standing ready to help us in our Christian witness-bearing. It is relatively easy to acknowledge our oneness with Stephen and to long for the experience of eternal oneness with "all those who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb" (Rv 22:14, Douay- Rheims). But to remain truly one with all our brothers and sisters continues to be a daily challenge. Today's Gospel is the last part of the "priestly prayer" of Jesus after the Last Supper. This chapter of John has been called "The Testament of Jesus" or "Jesus' High Priestly (or Intercessory) Prayer." During that long prayer, Jesus prayed first for himself – for his own glorification – as he faced the cross. Then, he prayed for his disciples that they might be unified and protected in the face of opposition from the world, and finally he prayed for those in distant lands and far-off ages, including ourselves, who would enter the Christian Faith through the witness-bearing of the Apostles and their successors. Thus, this is Jesus' prayer for each one of us. We have complete Faith and certainty because Jesus put his confidence in God and entrusted us to Him.

We need to pray for unity and serve one another in unity. We must pray for unity and discuss the similarities we share with others as well as our differences. Along with prayer, we must put our words into action. This means that we are to serve one another and to love one another as brothers and sisters in the Lord. What unites us is greater than what divides us. As we move nearer to Jesus Christ, in him we move nearer to one another. Such unity is ultimately a gift of the Holy Spirit and of His guidance. The soul of the ecumenical movement then, is spiritual. Only by a renewal of the spiritual, by common prayer and common listening to the Word of God, can we hope to overcome the present ecumenical impasses and difficulties. In the words of Pope St. John Paul II: "The door to ecumenism is opened only on our knees." We need to have a clear idea about the Catholic stand on ecumenism. In his encyclical Ut Unum Sint, Pope St. John Paul II warns against compromise for the sake of unity. He states, "the ultimate goal of the ecumenical movement is to re-establish full visible unity among all the baptized [77.1]." He adds, "It is already possible to identify the areas in need of fuller study before a true consensus of Faith can be achieved." Our Lord himself prayed for this unity, and this should be our prayer now and always.

May Crowning of Mary

A longstanding Catholic tradition, the May Crowning of Mary honours the Virgin Mary. A "May Crowning" is typically held, where Mary is presented with a floral crown.

Short Liturgy for the crowing of Our Lady (6pm Mass Only):

Kneeling before the statue we say:

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry, O poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn then most gracious advocate, thine eyes towards us, and after this, our exile, show into us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary;

Priest: Pray for us O holy Mother of God,

All: That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.
